6 Membership terms

1. Membership is personal to the member named on the application and cannot be transferred.
2. The information given in the application is true and complete. GITTA may ask for evidence and may refuse or end a membership obtained with false information.
3. The member follows the GITTA Code of Conduct and keeps their professional knowledge up to date.

4. Membership runs for the period paid for and ends on the date shown on the membership certificate unless it is renewed.
5. The membership number, grade and validity are published on the GITTA verification page so that anyone can check them.
6. The membership fee is not refundable once the membership period has started.
7. A personal membership does not give the right to deliver GITTA courses or to issue GITTA certificates. Only an organisation member approved as a centre may do so.
8. GITTA stores and processes the personal data in the application to assess it and to manage the membership.
